

2012
ICAS

WRITING

Vasja Lazarevich
Scotch College Junior School
South Australia

Write a character description.

You know feathers are very interesting, right? Well this is a nightmare day. A little boy is on a bus. The lady in front of him is wearing a hat with a pink feather poking out of it. Oh no. This annoying boy is standing on his mum's lap and trying to grab the pink feather in front of him. His mum isn't exactly smart either. She isn't even telling the boy off! No. She's looking out the window. Well, the annoying boy is luckily, not quite reaching the feather though. He should just give up. The lady wearing the hat is just half asleep and half playing on an iPad. The poor lady has no idea that the little brat is trying to grab her feather! Everyone on the bus is oblivious to the little boy. He's smiling on top of it. I don't see what is so funny about trying to grab a lady's feather. Well obviously the little boy thinks it's hilarious to try and grab a pink feather from a hat of all things. Some people have some very crazy ideas. I just can't believe his mother is oblivious to the fact that her son is being very badly behaved. What is so funny out the window? Well Mr. bad behaved is well-bad behaved! Some people have some very nutty ideas. What is so tempting about getting a pink feather? I can't believe the lady is not paying attention. I wonder what else that naughty boy does.